PBTK Exhibits at 2017 National Indian Gaming Tradeshow

[LAS VEGAS, Nev.] April 13, 2017 – Las-Vegas based accounting firm Piercy Bowler Taylor & Kern \(PBTK\) will have a booth at the National Indian Gaming Association (NIGA) 2017 Indian Gaming Tradeshow this week.

The Indian Gaming Tradeshow will be held at the San Diego Convention Center from April 10-13, 2017. Shareholder Jim Andrus, CPA and Director of Business Development Ryan Schmidt will be at booth 539.

PBTK offers resources for both tribal casinos and governments to increase dollars kept on the reservation, how to eliminate and reduce fraud, and how to add tribal jobs through strategic planning, training and alliances. The firm also provides ways to improve the internal audit and IT audit functions within a tribal casino.

PBTK is recognized as a premier provider of auditing services for tribal gaming enterprises and governments. As an Associate Member of NIGA, the firm has extensive experience in virtually every aspect of casino gaming and allied industries with several clients operating in multiple domestic and/or foreign jurisdictions.
